

Naturally grown by farmers! Carefully approved by a doctor!

At Prakurti Ayurved, we follow traditional Ayurvedic principles to create pure, natural products rooted in purity, tradition, experience, and scientific validation.

We source our raw materials from Alrahatam Herbal Ayurved, a trusted partner known for producing herbal food products, natural medicines, poultry feed, and organic fertilizers. Together, we have partnered with farmers to cultivate Ayurvedic crops such as Moringa, Beetroot, Amla, Neem, and Giloy using organic fertilizers and traditional farming practices.

By purchasing their produce directly, we ensure the prosperity of the farmers while promoting sustainable agriculture.

Our initiative is built on the belief that healthy communities begin with empowered farmers and pure food. Together, we are nurturing a sustainable ecosystem that supports both — those who grow and those who consume.

Through this collective effort, we aim to bring you authentic Ayurvedic products made with care and respect for nature. Products that promote health, balance, and well-being for everyone.

GILOY POWDER

Giloy (Tinospora cordifolia), also known as Guduchi or Amrita, is regarded in Ayurveda as one of the most powerful herbs for rejuvenation and longevity. The term Amrita literally means “nectar of immortality,” reflecting its immense healing potential.

This versatile herb is known to strengthen immunity, purify the blood, and support the body’s natural defense system against infections and diseases. It is rich in antioxidants, alkaloids, and glycosides that help detoxify the body and promote internal balance.

Known for its powerful anti-inflammatory and anti-arthritic properties, Giloy helps reduce joint pain, stiffness, and swelling. It is especially effective in managing symptoms of arthritis and gout. Giloy promotes healthy digestion, alleviates acidity, and enhances metabolism. It helps balance the body’s three doshas—Vata, Pitta, and Kapha—for overall well-being.

AMLA POWDER

Amla (Indian Gooseberry) powder is a highly revered Ayurvedic superfood made from sun-dried, finely ground amla fruit. Known as one of the most potent natural sources of Vitamin C, it provides the body with powerful antioxidants, polyphenols, amino acids, minerals, and essential nutrients that nourish every cell. It is unique in its ability to balance all three doshas—Vata, Pitta, and Kapha making it suitable for all body types.

Amla powder supports healthy digestion by strengthening Agni (digestive fire), improving nutrient absorption, and reducing acidity. It enhances liver function, aids natural detoxification, and helps eliminate toxins from the body.

Its rich Vitamin C content promotes glowing skin, reduces pigmentation, slows signs of aging, and stimulates collagen production. Amla is also one of the best herbs for hair. It strengthens hair roots, reduces hair fall, improves scalp health, and prevents premature greying.

TRIFALA POWDER

Since ancient times, Triphala Powder has been regarded as one of Ayurveda's most beneficial formulations. It helps detoxify the entire body and is effective in numerous health conditions. Triphala is a blend of three powerful fruits – Amla (Indian Gooseberry), Haritaki (Chebulic Myrobalan), and Vibhitaki (Belleric Myrobalan) – which are highly valued for their healing and rejuvenating properties.

Each of these fruits offers unique health benefits:

- Amla: Rich in Vitamin C, iron, calcium, magnesium, and antioxidants; improves digestion and strengthens immunity.
- Haritaki: Enhances metabolism, promotes detoxification, and supports respiratory health.
- Vibhitaki: Supports liver health, strengthens eyesight, and aids in fat metabolism.

Triphala Powder is rich in Vitamin C, iron, calcium, magnesium, potassium, fiber, and natural antioxidants. It purifies the blood, removes toxins, strengthens the digestive system, improves eyesight, enhances skin glow, and promotes healthy hair.

HALAD RASAYAN

Halad Rasayan is a unique Ayurvedic formulation prepared from pure turmeric and natural limestone, known for their powerful healing and restorative properties. This blend helps strengthen the body's natural defense system and supports overall wellness by addressing nutritional deficiencies and promoting internal balance.

Rich in essential minerals, Halad Rasayan aids in replenishing calcium, iron, and folic acid levels—helping combat weakness and fatigue. It is particularly beneficial for bone and joint health, offering relief from conditions such as arthritis, cervical and spinal discomfort, disc problems, and knee pain.

Regular use helps enhance bone density and flexibility, keeping the body strong and active. Traditionally recommended during the winter months, a daily intake of 2–3 grams of Halad Rasayan for about three months helps fortify the body against seasonal ailments and may contribute to the prevention of chronic and major diseases, including cancer.

NEEM POWDER

Neem powder is a powerful Ayurvedic herb renowned for its deep cleansing, purifying, and healing properties. It is rich in bioactive compounds such as limonoids, azadirachtin, glycosides, flavonoids, saponins, fatty acids, and salanin, which work together to protect, repair, and nourish the skin. Neem is highly effective in managing a wide range of skin conditions, including acne, pimples, itching, rashes, psoriasis, eczema, and fungal infections. Its natural antibacterial, antifungal, and anti-inflammatory properties help soothe irritated skin, reduce redness, and promote faster healing.

Internally, neem acts as a powerful blood purifier, helping the body eliminate toxins and support clearer skin, improved immunity, and better overall health. Neem also plays a role in strengthening bones and teeth, promoting oral health, and reducing gum-related issues.

With its strong detoxifying, cleansing, and restorative effects, neem powder is considered an excellent herbal supplement for maintaining healthy skin, improving internal wellness, and supporting long-term vitality.

TURMERIC POWDER

Turmeric powder is a revered Ayurvedic herbal formulation made from dried turmeric root and is valued for its active principle, curcumin. It is naturally rich in curcumin, along with volatile oils, polyphenols, flavonoids, saponins, tannins, vitamins, proteins, and essential minerals. These compounds give turmeric powerful antioxidant, anti-inflammatory, antifungal, antibacterial, and antiviral properties that help protect and strengthen the body.

Turmeric supports overall immunity, improves digestion and gut health, reduces cholesterol, and promotes healthy liver function. It helps heal wounds faster, supports joint and bone strength, enhances skin complexion, and aids in controlling inflammation-related disorders.

It also helps regulate blood sugar levels and supports cardiovascular health by improving circulation. Additionally, turmeric aids in detoxification and may help enhance cognitive function.
